

Windswept
BOUTIQUE

Hello Rachel,

It was a pleasure seeing you again at our open house the other week! You're always the first person I think of when I am out networking and building relationships. Please let me know if I can ever be of assistance to you or anyone you know!

See you soon!

Diane

Task: letter to a friend

Age: 18

Mother tongue: Chinese

Good morning dear Mary.

I was so happy to receive your letter!

I am so excited that we are going to spend holidays together! On August weather is always nice and warm. I love sea! We could go swim and play beach volleyball. I would like to try surfing. Because I have never surfed before. By the way are we going to attend dancing party? Should I take my dancing shoe?

Looking forward your reply.

Cheers.

25th March 1955

Class 6A

Carolyn Stone

French And English

The game of French and English can be played by either boys or girls. It is played in the open and needs quite a lot of room. Any number of people can play.

Firstly a captain is elected and teams are picked. Secondly, the two teams form lines about forty feet apart. Each team faces each other. Every person puts out his hands in front of him. The French have the palms of their hands turned down and the English have theirs turned up.

To start the game, the captain of one team goes to the other team and starts tapping each person's hands. For instance, if the captain of the French came and tapped the English, he could pick any person and tap him underneath. Then the French would have to run to his line with the English person running after him. If the English catches the French boy or girl, that person now has to join the English side. Then the English boy or girl who had to run